Have you ever wondered about the origin of sin and evil? Could God, the Creator of all things, have created such malevolence? The author's personal experiences of being confronted by, and defeating evil spirits have led to extensive research to discover not only the source of evil, but its beginning. In this book, the findings are presented along with personal stories, misunderstood scripture, and application of truth in the midst of lies. The reader may find, as the author did, that the more knowledge of the enemy one possesses, the less frightening he becomes.
