História dos estados unidos: das origens ao século XXI (Portuguese Edition) Leandro Karnal, Marcus Vinícius de Moraes, Luiz Estevam Fernandes, Sean Purdy

Como podem os Estados Unidos provocar tanto ódio, a ponto de muita gente no mundo ficar feliz com ataques suicidas de fanáticos contra eles? Como pode uma cultura influenciar tantas outras e ostentar, muitas vezes, um provincianismo digno de rincões escondidos no espaço e no tempo? Nação que absorveu mais imigrantes que nenhuma outra na história, que respeita as diferenças criando etiquetas para as minorias, que incorpora cientistas do mundo todo em suas melhores universidades, que espalhou para o mundo o cinema e o jazz, séries de tv e calças jeans, padrão de magreza anoréxica e de seios inflados; país que defendeu a democracia em "guerras justas" e atentou contra ela em invasões injustificáveis. É sobre esse fascinante país que trata este livro. Primeira e única obra feita com olhar brasileiro, foi escrita por quatro especialistas da área, passando longe da visão maniqueísta com que o tema comumente é tratado. Obra de referência, essencial para quem não é indiferente (gostando ou não) às influências que a terra do Tio Sam exerce sobre nós.
