Scent of Light (Booy-e Noor) (Persian Edition) Ali Heidari

"Scent of Light (Booy-e Noor)" is a rich collection of Persian poems written by the renowned Iranian poet, artist, and calligraphist, Ali Heidari. His unparalleled poems take his readers on various journeys, including one through the turbulent oceans of existence, one that passes in between the hearts of lovers and strangers, and one where we finally understand the love attraction that exists between the colorful butterfly and the solitary candle. His poems continuously, and rather beautifully, remind us that life is precious, and more particularly he focuses on the fragile life of unexpressed love. Through his poetic channels, Heidari encourages the expression of love for his readers, in a way that would warm up and soften even the coldest, and most severely frozen hearts. With every word, we are reminded that love is everything we need, and that the freedom to love is our most basic, and individual right, that must be cherished. When reading his poems, we are reminded of the chains that imprison each and everyone of us in our own minds, and how we must free ourselves from these bonds. "Life is a smile, life is hope, life is you, and life is me."...and here's the book that covers it all. Be khod ay- Be khod ai
