Whenever Billy is sent to his Grandfather's house, no amount of grumbling and mumbling can save him from the strict, unforgiving nature of his Grandfather. Ever since he had become eight years old, Billy's parents have sent him off to his grandparent's house. Little did they know that in doing this, they had risked uncovering the secret that was in their hearts. However, this time, Billy's Grandfather has given him a gift in his Grandfathers' last days which can unveil a deep family secret that he is not allowed to learn. With only few people in the family who know this secret, who will reveal it to the world? Or will it be lost forever in the minds and hearts of his family? Now it is up to Billy to use his wits, perseverance and intuitive nature to uncover the secret that his family has kept hidden... Will Billy succeed? Or will he fail to do so?
