L'enigma di Mr Scobie (Scatti) (Italian Edition) Elizabeth Jolley

Mr Scobie è un vecchio insegnante di musica in pensione. Ha ottantacinque anni, è solo, e per un beffardo scherzo del destino viene ricoverato nella Casa di riposo dei Santi Cristoforo e Giuda, di proprietà della signorina Price, donna avida e senza scrupoli. Il luogo è un bizzarro microcosmo animato da personaggi a dir poco eccentrici: la cuoca iracunda, che non smette mai di imprecare a voce alta; le giovanissime inservienti canterine, disinibite e maliziose; le infermiere vessate e sfruttate dalla signorina Price; il marito bigamo della direttrice... E poi, i pazienti: la signorina Hailey, autrice di un romanzo rifiutato da quarantadue editori e di un poema bollato di "indecenza" dal segretario comunale del paese; il signor Privett, che mette annunci per vendere il suo corpo "a un prezzo ragionevole" e poi le partite a carte fino a notte fonda, i piani per evadere... Romanzo di satira sociale giocato sul confine tra la comicità grottesca e il dramma esistenziale, "L'enigma di Mr Scobie" fu il libro della consacrazione di Elizabeth Jolley. Spesso accostato a "Qualcuno volò sul nido del cuculo" per l'intreccio drammatico e perverso di lucidità e follia all'interno di una struttura sanitaria, vinse nel 1983, anno di pubblicazione, il premio "The Age Book of the Year"
