A Stranger in the Family Jo Ann Rountree

Waking in a hospital room, Julia Buckley is alarmed to realize that she doesn't recognize anyone. She doesn't even know her own name. And when a man claiming to be her husband demands to know why she's returned, Julia has nothing to say. Her past is a complete blank to her. When she recovers from her injuries from the car accident, she returns home with her husband, Drew, but she feels like A Stranger in the Family, distant from both the husband and daughter she doesn't remember. Jo Ann Rountree's fast-paced novel will keep you guessing with the complex relationship between Julia and Drew, who finds Julia as unfamiliar as she finds him. As Julia struggles to make sense of her life and find peace with her family, she is plagued by nightmares in which she sees herself shot dead. Are she and her family in danger? What has she done, and how can she make things right? Will she always be A Stranger in the Family?
