Ghostly Spirits of Warren County, North Carolina & Beyond: Extrordinary True Stories Told by Ordinary People Arlene S. Bice

True stories collected here tell of the exciting times of past history in a place full of life. The true South emerges full of colorful characters that you will remember long after you put the book down. People walking through walls, interrupting workmen on the job. Spirits left behind to care for the residents of the house. All are here to bring the reader up to date on the happenings that are not seen by everyone. A tea party is attended being held for ghostly children who giggle and laugh. Residents who cannot be seen, interfere with work being completed on his house. Stories are brought from other places to here, where new residents settle from the places they lived, also full of the stories of hauntings.
