Profetas del pasado: Quince voces de la histografia sobre Mexico (Spanish Edition) Christopher Dominguez Michael Con motivo de la doble conmemoracion de 1810 y 1910, Christopher Dominguez Michael entrevisto para la revista Letras Libres y la serie de television La Conquista a algunos de los mas importantes entre los historiadores que, mexicanos y extranjeros, han escrito obras decisivas sobre nuestra historia: David A. Brading, Christian Duverger, John H. Elliott, Brian R. Hamnett, Friedrich Katz, Alan Knight, Enrique Krauze, Miguel Leon-Portilla, Rodrigo Martinez Baracs, Eduardo Matos Moctezuma, Jean Meyer, Guilhem Olivier, Hugh Thomas, Guillermo Tovar de Teresa y Eric Van Young. A lo largo de estas conversaciones, los historiadores partieron del mundo mesoamericano reflexionando sobre los sacrificios humanos entre los aztecas, el esplendor barroco de la Nueva Espana, las condiciones modernas o antimodernas de nuestra Independencia, la intemperancia de las guerras de Reforma, la violencia durante la Revolucion y el terror durante la Cristiada; el regimen cardenista y la falsa o relativa fortaleza del Estado surgido de la Constitucion de 1917. El reparto es, predeciblemente, magnifico: Moctezuma, la Malinche y Cortes, el arzobispo Palafox y Mendoza, los virreyes borbonicos, los curas Hidalgo y Morelos, el emperador Iturbide, los revolucionarios de 1910 encabezados por Madero y Villa. Junto a los heroes y los antiheroes, los historiadores no olvidaron a los mexicanos comunes y corrientes que han hecho y sufrido la historia. El resultado de estas conversaciones, en las que quien pregunta lo hace desde un conocimiento extraordinariamente amplio de la historia de Mexico y de la obra de cada uno de los entrevistados, es un panorama a la vez abarcador y vivisimo, en el que los puntos de vista y los enfoques historiograficos contrastan; los lugares comunes, los habitos y las manias de la historia oficial se impugnan o desechan; las seguridades ideologicas se disipan o flexibilizan, y se anuncian planteamientos y vias novedosos, metodos de investigacion distintos, corpus historicos no explorados, sujetos y documentos hasta ahora ignorados, de forma tal que el conjunto nos pronostica cuales seran los rasgos nuevos que tendra en adelante nuestro pasado.
