Though some homeowners fantasize about a house full of rooms with gleaming mahogany and firelight, and comfy corners, few have the time and money to achieve that dream. In this book, the author draws on years of experience to provide ingenious decorating ideas for maximum effect with minimum effort. The book is divided into four styles - neo-classical, country baroque, country classic and neo-traditional - each offering an array of patterns, materials, decorating and craft projects for all areas of the home. Armed with the most basic equipment, the book shows how to transform bookcases into marbelized treasure troves, gild a dinner service and build fabulous topiaries.
