Labirinti (Italian Edition) Antonio Cerbarano

Dai racconti di Labirinti emerge, lancinante, la consapevolezza della solitudine degli esseri umani di fronte alle situazioni, a volte le più comuni, che la vita presenta loro. L'autore dà vita a personaggi rarefatti, inconsistenti nel loro essere, quasi burattini nelle mani degli organismi in cui si imbattono, le cui funzioni e strutture risultano il più delle volte incomprensibili a una ragione che in un tale scenario smette di assolvere la sua funzione e diventa, paradossalmente, il contrario di se stessa, un tramite attraverso cui l'individuo non fa altro che aumentare il proprio senso di disagio e di inadeguatezza nei confronti di ciò che lo circonda. Ecco allora una folla inconsapevole attendere anni che l'ufficio K dia a ciascuno un ruolo, ecco il caos e l'assurda burocrazia che regnano nella Terza Commissione Permanente Plenaria in cui G. da poco svolge il ruolo di Consigliere, lo sconfinato potere nelle mani di un apparentemente innocuo programma d'informatica in grado di manipolare menti e anime.
