Latinologues And Mas Monologues is one of the finest collections of Latino comedy and drama today. This historic work is from Rick Najera, the first Mexican American to have both written and starred in a Broadway show. This theater collection is hip, and funny, as well as poignant and dramatic. Showcasing all the facets of latinos in America, from the Chicano barrios of Los Angles to the latino immigrant streets of New York, Latinologues And Mas Monologues is one of the finest collections of monologues and plays in contemporary theater today. This media-rich collection Latinologues And Mas Monologues includes Buford Gomez a satirical look at the border and the life and words of a Mexican American Border patrol agent. As well as Mas Monologues, which are a collection of even more hysterical monologues and includes some dramatic monologues from one of America's most produced Latino writers. Latinologues And Mas Monologues is one of the most important resources for latino and non-latino actors alike by one of the most creative minds today. Rick Najera has been recognized as one of the Hundred Most Influential Latinos by Hispanic Business magazine twice. He is a Writers Guild of America nominee twice for his work on Mad TV and a recipient of the National Council of La Raza prestigious Alma Award for his writing. Not only is this collection historical in scope, it is a celebration of latino culture. This collection should be in every actor's and fan's of Latino cultures personal library.
