Do you believe in Heaven? If so, how do you envision it? Is it some far away place restricted for the dead, and only if they lived the “right” type of life? Imagine for a moment, that our concept of Heaven is only partially correct. Can you do that? What if Heaven was available to you right here, right now? Would that excite you? Would you want to experience a piece of it right away? Through this transformational book, David Essel was given the message that is about to change the way that millions of people think, believe, and act, as he proves that the Heaven we seek, the one we believe we have to wait for, is right here NOW! And the best news? Heaven is available today to anyone who truly wants it.
