Steam Noir - Das Kupferherz 1 (German Edition) Benjamin Schreuder

Ein zerbrochener Planet.

Schollen, die im Äther treiben.

Maschinen mit Seelen und Menschen ohne Skrupel.

Dampfkraft, groteske Maschinenteknik und übernatürliche Phänomene.

Und über all dem eine geheimnisvolle Toteninsel, die die Welt der Lebenden heimsucht.

Willkommen in der bizarren Welt von "Steam Noir" - der Steampunk-Saga der "Jakob"-Schöpfer Felix Mertikat und Benjamin Schreuder.

Ein Einbruch in einer Villa in der Ätherhafenstadt Schierling ruft ein außergewöhnliches Ermittlerteam auf den Plan: Heinrich Lerchenwald, Junggeselle und Lebemann, seit vielen Jahren als Bizarromant für den Januskoogener Leonardsbund tätig; Richard Hirschmann, beseelter Maschinenmensch, sanftmütig, aber verbissener Kriminalist; Frau D., Tatortermittlerin und Suffragette in Personalunion. Ein außergewöhnliches Fahndergespann für einen außergewöhnlichen Fall: Eine verlorene Seele, ein Wiederkehrer von der Toteninsel Vineta, hat die Leiche eines Mädchens entwendet, das vor Jahren in den Hauskamin eingemauert wurde. Die Suche nach der Seele und dem Mörder des Mädchens führt Heinrich und seine Kollegen auf die Spuren eines ominösen Wunderheilers, der an der Erforschung mechanischer Organe arbeitet.

Für ihr Comic-Debüt "Jakob" wurden Felix Mertikat und Benjamin Schreuder mit dem "Sondermann"-Preis der Frankfurter Buchmesse ausgezeichnet. "Steam Noir" ist ihre zweite Zusammenarbeit und ungleich epischer und fulminanter als ihr gefeierter Erstling. "Das Kupferherz" ist der erste Schritt in eine fantastische neue Steampunk-Welt, die in der deutschen Comic-Landschaft ihres Gleichen sucht. Originell, atmosphärisch, düster und voll zarter, lyrischer Momente, die perfekte Mischung aus fabulierfreudiger Pulp-Unterhaltung á la "Hellboy" und den modernen Schauermärchen eines E.T.A. Hoffmann.
