Backpacking Through the Anglican Communion: A Search for Unity Jesse Zink

- A fresh first-hand take on the Anglican Communion
- Of special interest to younger Episcopalian/Anglicans

Travel with Jesse Zink as he literally walks us through many of church's most representative provinces—Nigeria, front line of opposition to the American church; South Sudan, leading the way to a peaceful future; England, the mother church, facing an uncertain future; South Africa, once led by an iconic archbishop and now fighting a devastating AIDS epidemic; and the United States, divided and dwindling, but with hopeful signs of new growth.

The backpacking author has a story to tell that is far different from the one that dominates the headlines. He reveals that when debates about power, history, and sexuality are undertaken in a spirit of mutuality and trust, they can serve to strengthen, not weaken, the Communion. The result is a book that vividly presents slices of local Anglican life around the world, argues convincingly that unity is central to the Communion's mission, and presents a credible path to achieving global unity.
